

THE ST. THOMAS TIMES-JOURNAL

NEW QUEEN'S SCOUTS—Four St. Thomas Boy Scouts and one from Port Stanley were among 119 from the Great Lakes Region who were presented with their Queen's Scout certificates at a Queen's Scout recognition ceremony, held in Huron Park Secondary School, Woodstock, today. Magistrate R. G. Groom, Q. C., of Tillsonburg, was guest speaker and presented the scouts with their awards. They are from left to right, with troop and scoutmaster in brackets: Jim Somerville ville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Somerville, R. R. 4, St. Thomas (1st St. Thomas, Bill McFarlane); Wayne Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cooper, 47 Southdale, (1st St. Thomas, Bill McFarlane); Brian Sim, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Sim, 200 Elm Street (7th St. Thomas, Brenton Hellyer); Brian Henson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Henson, Colborn Street, Port Stanley (1st Port Stanley, Robert Lusher); Nickie Holmes, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Holmes, 27 Montgomery Road (14th St. Thomas, Gordon Smith.)—(T.-J. Photo.)