

Capt. Eldert New President Officers' Mess

CAPT. CHARLES ELDERT

Fellow officers this week honored Capt. Charles Eldert by electing him president of the Elgin Regiment Officers' Mess.

Capt. Eldert, whose promotion to major is expected to be announced soon, succeeds Capt. S. J. Abel and his term of office will run until September, 1958. Capt. Abel is remaining a member of the mess committee as immediate past president.

With Capt. Eldert on the mess committee will also be Major R. L. Chantler as vice-president; Lieut. Arthur Harriman, secretary; Lieut. J. J. Weller, treasurer; 2nd Lieut. John Goodwin, chairman of house committee; Lieut. D. S. Duncan, chairman of membership committee; and Lieut. W. P. Golden, chairman of entertainment committee.

The new mess president is a former adjutant of the Elgin Regiment and this fall will command the newly-formed C Squadron of about 120 secondary school students joining the regiment in a body from the eight-week training course they received at the Wilson Avenue Armory during July and August. He is a member of the staff of the Arthur Voaden Vocational School.

19 April 1957