

SURVIVAL COURSE ENDS—Ninety-five men received certificates of Merit at the Elgin (27th Armored) Regiment yesterday upon completion of the second special National Survival Course sponsored by the regiment. Shown above receiving his certificate from Lt.-Col. R.L. Chantler, C.D. commanding officer, is Andy Hulst, of Aylmer with Harvey Witherow, Port Stanley, and Floyd Phillips, of Muncey, awaiting their certificates. More than half of the men, 55, are staying with the Elgin Regiment and an additional 12 have applied for regular army service. The third course will begin on Feb. 26. Almost 100 men have applied for it already. Also present at yesterday's parade were Major William Lane representing Army area headquarters and Ronald K. McNeil M.P.P. for Elgin who along with Lt.-Col. Chantler reviewed the militiamen.—(T.-J. Photo).