

GUARD OF HONOR INSPECTED—Rain and heavy cloud darkened the sky over St. Thomas on Wednesday evening as Commodore D. W. Piers, D.S.C., inspected a Guard of Honor composed of student militiamen of C. Squadron at the Wilson Avenue Armory. Commodore Piers, commandant of the Royal Military College, Kingston, was the guest speaker at the annual St. George's Day dinner of the Elgin Regiment. Following the Commodore on the inspection is guard commander Cpl. H. Warren; Lt.-Col. J. W. McNeil, officer commanding the regiment, and Major G. Sellars, of R.M.C., Kingston, aide-de-camp.
