

Ruth Martin honored at dinner

UNION — The St. Thomas Golf & Country Club was the scene Tuesday evening, of a retirement dinner for Mrs. E. R. (Ruth) Martin, Deputy County Court Clerk-Registrar for Elgin since 1956. Mrs. Martin will complete 17 years' service on May 31.

She will be succeeded by Mrs. Marjorie B. Salmon formerly an assistant to Mrs. Martin.

The guest of honor was presented with an engraved silver tray and other gifts by the fellow workers and associates in attendance at Tuesday's event.

Those present included Elgin County Court Judge Joseph A. Winter; former Judge J. F. McMillian; Robert F. Cline, president of the Elgin Bar Association; Elgin County Sheriff and Clerk-Registrar Eugene P. Ray; and Deputy Sheriff James A. McBain.